Re: Commodity Futures Trading Commission vs. Watson, Potts and Cash Flow Financial, LLC et al
U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Michigan, Southern Division
Case No. 11-cv-10949, Honorable Lawrence P. Zatkoff

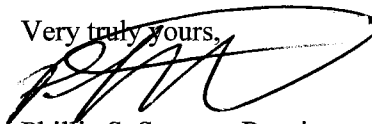

Dear Sir or Madam:

The purpose of this letter is to provide an update regarding the current status of the above-referenced case and the CFF Receivership Estate. As you may already be aware, on February 24, 2014, the Court entered the Order Approving Investor Claims Procedure ("the Order"). The Order directed the Receiver to send out a Claims Packet containing a Statement of Claim form, a Summarizing Letter and the Investor Claims Procedure to all known potential claimants within thirty (30) days of the date of the Order. In compliance with the Order, on March 14, 2014, the Receiver mailed a Claims Packet to all known potential claimants via regular first-class mail.

Per the terms of the Order, all potential claimants who wish to file a claim in these Receivership proceedings must send a completed and signed Statement of Claim form and any necessary supporting documentation to the Receiver no later than the Claims Bar Date of May 26, 2014. Any claimant who fails to send in a Statement of Claim form by the Claims Bar Date will be forever barred from participating in the Receivership. If you do not receive a personalized Claims Packet from the Receiver by mail, you may request a Claims Packet by contacting the Receiver's office via telephone or e-mail as indicated above, or you may download a blank Claims Packet from our website at www.cffreceiver.com under the "Investor Response Form" tab.

A copy of this letter will be posted on the CFF website and has been e-mailed to all investors for whom the Receiver has an e-mail address. If you would like future updates to be e-mailed to you, please provide the Receiver with your e-mail address to cfreceiver@stengerlaw.com.

Very truly yours,

Phillip S. Stenger, Receiver
Cash Flow Financial, LLC, Alan James Watson,
