STATUTORY RESTRAINING ORDER,
ORDER FOR EXPEDITED DISCOVERY, AND ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION SHOULD NOT BE ENTERED

This matter came before the Court on the United States Commodity Futures Trading Commission’s (“Commission”) motion for an ex parte statutory restraining order, an order for expedited discovery, and an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be entered. The Court, having considered the Commission's motion, memorandum of law, complaint, and other relevant materials, and all other evidence and arguments presented by the Commission, finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and over the subject matter of this action pursuant to Section 6c of the Commodity Exchange Act (Act), as amended, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2006).

2. Venue lies properly within this District pursuant to Section 6c(e) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e).

3. There is good cause to believe that defendants, Alan James Watson (“Watson”), Michael S. Potts (“Potts”) and Cash Flow Financial LLC (“CFF”) have engaged, are engaging, or are about to engage in acts and practices constituting violations of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1, et seq., and Commission Regulations (Regulations), 17 C.F.R. § 1.1 et seq. (2009).

4. There is good cause to believe that relief defendant, The Jedburgh Group (hereinafter, “Relief Defendant”), received funds and/or property as a result of the Defendants’ unlawful conduct and have been unjustly enriched thereby. There is good cause to believe that Relief Defendant has no legitimate entitlement to or interest in all of the funds and/or property received as a result of the Defendants’ unlawful conduct.

5. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court's ability to grant effective final relief for investors in the form of monetary redress will occur from the sale, transfer, assignment, or other disposition by Defendants or Relief Defendant of assets or records unless Defendants and Relief Defendant are immediately restrained and enjoined by order of the Court.

6. Good cause exists for freezing Defendants' assets and all assets held in Account No. xxxxxx4493 at Bank of America, N.A., or any other assets held for the benefit of, received from or in any way related to Defendants Watson, Potts and/or CFF (collectively hereinafter “Certain Assets of Relief Defendant”) and for entry of an order prohibiting Defendants and Relief Defendant from destroying records and denying agents of the Commission access to inspect and copy records.

7. Good cause exists to require an accounting to determine location and disposition of customer funds.

8. Good cause exists to order repatriation of assets controlled by Defendants and Certain Assets of Relief Defendant to assure payment of restitution and disgorgement as authorized and for the benefit of customers.

9. Good cause exists to permit expedited discovery before the early meeting of counsel pursuant to Rule 26(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in order to ascertain the existence and location of assets, clarify the source of funds, and identify all pool participants and other investors.

10. Weighing the equities and considering the Commission's likelihood of success in its claims for relief, the issuance of a statutory restraining order is in the public interest.

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this order, the following definitions apply:

11. The term "document" is synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of the term in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a), and includes, but is not limited to, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, audio and video recordings, computer records, drives, networks, servers, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained and translated, if necessary, through detection devices into reasonably usable form. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of the term.

12. "Assets" mean any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, including but not limited to: chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds, mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts including bank accounts and accounts at financial institutions, credits, receivables, lines of credit, contracts including spot and futures contracts, insurance policies, and all cash, wherever located.

13. "Defendants" shall mean and refer not only to Watson, Potts and CFF, but also to any d/b/a, successor, or other entity controlled by any of the aforementioned individuals.

14. "Relief Defendant" shall mean and refer to not only The Jedburgh Group, but also to any d/b/a, successor, or other entity controlled by any of the aforementioned parties.
